National Headquarters was notified this morning that Col Mary Feik, a Life Member of Civil Air Patrol, suffered a fall over the weekend and has broken her tibia and fibula (both bones that go from the knee to the ankle). She is currently in the Anne Arundel Medical Center in Annapolis, MD suffering from swelling in her leg, and will undergo an operation to repair the damage after the swelling subsides. Please keep Col Feik and her family in your thoughts and prayers. Cards can be sent to:
